A+SPOTLIGHT, AWARDS

Architizer is thrilled to announce the world's best architecture firms in 2024, all winners of the 12th Annual A+Awards. This year's program celebrates creative courage, highlighting the extraordinary ability of architects to respond to clients' changing needs, our growing climate crisis, and the rapid evolution of technology. As well as celebrating some of the most innovative, recently completed architecture projects around the globe, Architizer's A+Awards also serve as an incredible indicator of

In recognition of this fact, Architizer is delighted to present the much-anticipated sixth edition of the coveted A+List, an annual rundown of every firm that scooped an A+Award and A+Firm Award in the previous season. The A+List forms a comprehensive guide to the world's best architecture firms and is refreshed each year based on the results of the annual A+Awards program. You can see last season's A+List here.

The A+List is arranged alphabetically, with more information available by clicking on the link to each firm's profile. We've also curated a selection of featured firms, providing some extra background on their A+Award triumphs.

Without further ado, explore the work of each of these immensely talented firms below, and good luck with your submissions to this year's program!
